

Privacy Policy

Your Personal Information

We respect your privacy and comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) to ensure your personal data is handled securely and lawfully.

At the moment, the 2DU system is offered as a hosted solution, and you purchase services for a system hosted on our servers. During the sign-up process, we collect information from you when you register and also when you interact with your boards and tasks.

When signing up for services on our site, you may be asked to enter details such as your name and email address.

The information we collect from you may be used to:

- Personalize your experience (e.g., to better respond to your individual needs).
- Improve our website based on the feedback and information we receive.
- Respond more effectively to your customer service requests and support needs.

Your Content

We do not claim ownership over the content you submit or upload to the 2DU system.

Content is stored solely to provide the service to you. Please read our Terms and Conditions for more information regarding our service, disclaimers, and limitations of liability governing the use of our products.

Disclosure of Information to Third Parties

We do not sell, trade, or transfer your personal information to third parties. If we do share your information, it will be under strict confidentiality agreements and only when necessary to operate our business or service your needs as a customer. We may also release your information when required to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect the rights, property, or safety of ourselves or others.

Cookies

We use cookies.

Cookies are small files that a site or service provider transfers to your computer's hard drive through your web browser. They enable the site or service provider's systems to recognize your browser and capture or remember certain information.

We use cookies to:

- Understand and save your preferences for future visits.
- Facilitate your ability to log in to the service.

Your Consent

By signing up and using our services, you automatically consent to this Privacy Policy.
